Well known lesbian singers Halcyon and Renee' Mixon are joining together for a concert to benefit the work of Georgia Equality. For one night only, Halcyon, the Tampa-based duo of Steph Callahan and Deb Hunseder, will perform with local musician, Renee' Mixon in a benefit for Georgia Equality. These well known lesbian performers are joining forces to raise awareness of the need to have a strong voice for LGBT rights, especially during the upcoming legislative session.

Stand for Equality is part of Georgia Equality's Campaign for a Fair Majority. In addition to attending this fundraising concert, individuals throughout Georgia can go online and create personalized webpages that will allow them to get their friends, family and co-workers involved in advocating for LGBT rights in Georgia.

Start the New Year off by making a Stand for Equality and supporting Georgia Equality's work to advance fairness, safety and opportunity for LGBT communities throughout the state.

General admission and VIP tickets are available at the door or through Georgia Equality's website at www.GeorgiaEquality.org
